CCI Lawyers

CCI Victoria Legal is a boutique workplace relations practice. It provides advice to a wide range of employers, from small businesses to multinational employers across a full range of workplace relations matters. CCI Lawyers is associated with the Victorian Employers' Chamber of Commerce and Industry (VECCI). However, it operates as an independently managed legal practice, providing legal services that are charged on an hourly basis to employers across Australia. Your business does not need to be a VECCI member to use our services.
